Worship Services:

8:30 AM

10:55 AM

At First United Methodist Church, we believe that Bible study and Christian fellowship are essential to the life and ministry of our entire congregation. One means by which we provide this opportunity is through Sunday school. Every Sunday morning at 9:45, there are groups for every age and interest from pre-school through senior adults.

On the following pages you will find information on each of our classes. If you have further questions, please call the church office.

ROOM DESIGNATIONS

Adult Division

We have fifteen adult Sunday school classes at First United Methodist Church. All are involved in mission projects, special activities and social events throughout the year. They strive to build a sense of community among their class members as well as to reach out to new members. Classes vary as to size and format. We encourage you to visit several classes in order to choose the one that best meets your needs.

Backsliders: JWH

Men and women of all ages enjoy different teachers/speakers each Sunday. Emphasis placed on outreach project.

Bible Focus: B206

The class is open to ALL AGES and the lesson is presented as both lecture and discussion. We use the International Lesson Series, a Bible-based curriculum that explores ways to understanding the biblical message and how to apply it to every day life.

College and Career: 402 CLC

Whether in college or starting your career after high school, this is a class that is tailored for you. The class enjoys projects and activities together at times in addition to Sunday morning.

Covenant: B214

This middle-age group of couples and singles enjoy studying various topics. Class members volunteer to teach the class and there is a brunch each quarter.

Forum: 405 CLC

This class of age 50+ singles and couples enjoy a lively class discussion over a cup of coffee and treats. Topics vary.

Foundation: B012

A couple's class, many of whom have young to middle school age children, that studies how the Bible relates to their lives.

Friendship: Jenkins Chapel

An older adult class that enjoys studying the Bible together, mission projects and fellowship. Come, join us.

Good News: 403 CLC

Adults in the 45+ age range, singles and couples, who are seeking a more intimate relationship with God, gather for class. This is a friendly class with a "small group" atmosphere.

Hall Bible: C112

Adult Bible studies for singles and couples of varying ages. This warm, friendly class invites all persons to join them on Sunday mornings.

Hymnody: C206B

Come study the great hymns of the church, who wrote them, why, and the meaning of the words.

Kerygma B213

Using the Kerygma Bible study series, this class is for adults of all ages. Visitors and new members are welcome.

Pathfinders: C201 (Parlor)

Large class in the 50+ age range. Different teachers/speakers every Sunday. This class enjoys discussion on spiritual and religious topics and the sharing of each other's knowledge.

Seekers 404 CLC

A small eclectic group of people of all ages in different stages of life who enjoy studying a variety of lessons which have included Methodism, world religions, spirituality, and the Gospel of John. All are welcome.

Wesley: B210

This class is made up of age 40+ singles and couples who study various subjects from the Bible along with social issues and family relationships.

Young Married or Soon to be Married: C209

All engaged or recently married couples are invited to come together on Sunday mornings. This supportive class studies a variety of topics.
