Early Childhood Music Ministry of First United Methodist Church is a weekday ministry for church members and residents of the Cookeville area where a child's natural musical instincts are nurtured in a positive environment featuring parental involvement, age appropriate activities, and quality musical experiences.

Taught by Rebekah Frye, licensed Musikgarten instructor, these classes incorporate:

Singing and Chanting

Playing Instruments

Movement and Dance

Dramatic Play and Stories

Focused Listening

Classical, Folk, and Religious Music

Parent/Caregiver Involvement

These music classes create a nurturing environment in which children will gain an enthusiasm for a life-long appreciation of music. Parents are affirmed and supported in a manner that facilitates family interaction.

Class Opportunities

Family Music (birth to 4 ½ years)

In the company of their caregivers, children will fill their class time with...

Group Singing! Dancing!
Movement and Listening Activities!
Instrument Exploration!

Children take turns using assorted drums, rhythm and melody instruments, puppets and animal friends. The classroom activities will foster musical skills, personal growth, brain development and listening and movement skills. The curriculum is tailored to each class's needs and age groups.

Class meets once a week for 12 weeks.
